

Center for Civic Education

Paid
Professional Learning!

Civics that Empowers All Students

We the People: Civics that Empowers All Students is a federally funded project of the Center for Civic Education that supports effective educator development through our flagship curricular program: We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution.

Who Is Eligible?

- Passionate educators who teach social studies in grades 4-8 and are making a difference in the lives of high-need students, we are looking for you!
- This opportunity is for teachers new to the We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution curricular program and professional learning.
- Open to teachers in all states!

The Benefits of Civics that Empowers All Students

Project Goals

- Boost underserved students' success in civics, literacy, and related competencies
- Support teachers and measure the impact of the enhanced We the People program on student and educator outcomes

Educator Benefits

- Paid in-person summer institute
- Classroom set of textbooks
- Yearlong professional learning
- Ready-to-use lessons and resources
- A stipend for completing research requirements
- Engaging pedagogy and academic content
- Gain a supportive network
- Access to inspiring scholar guest speakers

Student Benefits

- Gain an in-depth, interactive study of the foundations and fundamental principles of the U.S. Constitution
- Develop effective problem-solving, analysis, decision-making, and communication skills, which are essential for 21st-century work and civic life
- Become engaged and informed citizens who are prepared to take an active role in democracy

Scan
Here

civiced.org
/ceas