

Government Powers Sorting Slips

Lay and Collect Taxes

Borrow Money

Establish Courts

Define Crimes and Punishments

Eminent Domain

Presidential Power (II, 2 and 3)

Judicial Power (III, 1)

Regulate Interstate Commerce

Enter into Treaties

Raise an Army

Provide a Navy

Declare War

Fix Weights and Measures

Protect Patents and Copyrights

Coin Money

Establish Naturalization Rules

Ensure Uniform Bankruptcy Laws

Establish Postal System

Police Power

Licensing (ex. Marriage, Employment, Driving, Liquor)

Implement Welfare

Educate the Public

Administer Elections

Regulate Intrastate Commerce

Pass Bills of Attainder

Suspend Writ of Habeas Corpus

Grant Titles of Nobility

Pass Ex Post Facto Laws

Deny Bill of Rights (Incorporation)

State Reserved Powers (10th Amendment)

Favor One State over Another

Tax Exports

Change State Boundaries

Appropriate Money without Law

Enter into Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation

Emit Bills of Credit

Pass Laws Impairing the Obligation of Contracts

Maintain Troops in Time of Peace

Lay Duties on Imports or Exports