

Analyze the Power

Directions: With your team, investigate your assigned topic on the Analyze the Data resource and use this organizer to capture your evidence and wonderings.

1. Our investigation topic is:

2. Our first observations about the map included:

3. For our investigation topic, power reserved for the states includes:

4. For our investigation topic, power reserved for the federal government includes:

5. How does this division of power impact me? How might my life change if this power was distributed differently?

6. Why is it beneficial for some powers to be held by state and/or local governments?

7. What might be the benefits if the federal government held this power instead of the state?

8. Which branch do you think should have the supreme power on this topic? Why?

9. What we still wonder about our investigation topic is...