

Rights of the Accused Puppet Show Planner

Directions: With your collaborative team, write a story to be told through a puppet show that illustrates the amendment you have been assigned. It should include all of the elements of the rights that are guaranteed or protected by the amendment.

Step One

Read your amendment.
List the major rights that are protected or guaranteed in that amendment.

Amendment # _____ The rights protected or guaranteed by this amendment include:

Step Two

Write a script that explains the rights protected or guaranteed in your assigned amendment.
Emphasize why someone who is accused of a crime would want/need these rights and protections.

Step Three

List the characters (puppets) you will need in order to put on your puppet show. Using the storyboard, identify what scenes (locations) are needed.
